About Adikavi Nannaya University (ANUR): Adikavi Nannaya University, established at Rajahmundry in April 2006 through the Government of Andhra Pradesh Act No.28 of 2006, is a unique addition to the existing Universities in India. The University aims to combine the pristine glory and the contemporary demands of educational excellence. ANUR has been striving to contribute for making India a knowledge society/economy. It offers students a remarkable range of academic courses that are paired with an extraordinary breadth of extracurricular activities, hands on exposure, and opportunities for research, independent study and public service. It is striving to be an active contributor to the ever expanding field of knowledge under the brilliant guidance and vision of the Vice Chancellor.

Department of Management Studies: ANUR, inter alia, promoted Department of Management Studies (DOMS) as one of the Departments of the University with a commitment to carve the Department as one of the premier business schools in India and impart management wisdom to the prospective efficient and energetic managers. The Department of Management Studies has been toiling to emerge as centre of excellence in management education. The mission of the Department is to contribute to the evolution and enrichment of management education, applicable in various walks of life through research, consultancy, teaching and constant industrial collaboration and interaction. It has been succeeding in maintaining consistency in producing prospective managers in sync with industry requirements.

About Rajahmundry: Rajahmundry is situated in Southern part of India, on the banks of the holy river Godavari, in the State of Andhra Pradesh, India. The biggest attraction in Rajahmundry is the river Godavari with Asia's largest rail-cum-road bridge. Sir Arthur Cotton built an anicut (dam) in Dowleswaram. Rajahmundry is also a place for great poets.

.About Andalas University: Andalas University is one of the Indonesian State Universities located in the city of Padang, West Sumatra, Indonesia. The University is the oldest university outside Java Island that was officially opened on December 23, 1955 by the Vice President Mohammad Hatta. At that time, Andalas University was the fourth university which was inaugurated by the Indonesian Government. Officially accredited / recognized by the Kementerian Riset, Teknologi, dan Pendidikan Tinggi (Ministry of Research, Technology and Higher Education of the Republic of Indonesia), Universitas Andalas (UNAND) is a large (enrollment range: 25,000-29,999 students) coeducational higher education institution. UNAND offers courses and programs leading to officially recognized higher education degrees such as pre-bachelor degrees (i.e. certificates, diplomas, and associate or foundation degrees), bachelor degrees, master degrees, doctorate degrees in several areas of study. Andalas University consists of fifteen faculties, with most located in Limau Manis, about 12 km from the center of Padang.

In 2014, Andalas University rated A for institutional accreditation and enters the cluster of Independent College in the field of research. Andalas University faculty publications indexed Scopus in 2014 increased two-fold from the year 2013.
