

NATIONAL SEMINAR ON
RECENT ADVANCES AND CHALLENGES IN GEOSCIENCES: SUSTAINABLE
MANAGEMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND GEORESOURCES
NOVEMBER 29-30, 2019.
And
Annual General Body Meeting of Indian Society of Applied Geochemists (ISAG), Hyderabad.

Organizer

Department of Geology
Adikavi Nannaya University
Rajahmundry, AP.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Adikavi Nannaya University (AKNU) was established on 22nd April, 2006 by an Act of the Andhra Pradesh State Legislative Assembly to meet the higher education needs of East and West Godavari districts. It is an affiliating residential university. Its campus is located on the National Highway No. 16 at a distance of about 16 km from the Rajahmundry railway station and 14 km from the Rajahmundry Bus Station. Rajahmundry is connected with Hyderabad, Bangalore and Chennai by air and is on the main railway line between Chennai and Kolkata. Rajahmundry is around 210 km from Visakhapatnam and 180 km from Vijayawada and is located on the eastern bank of the River Godavari.

Chief Patron:

Prof. A.V Prasad Rao
Vice-Chancellor (I/C)

Patrons:

Prof. P. Suresh Varma, Rector
Dr. K. Rameswari,
Principal, College of Science & Technology
Prof. S.Teki, Registrar

Chairman:

Prof. Y. Srinivasa Rao
Dean, Academic Affairs

Secretary:

Dr. K. V. Swamy

Joint-Secretary:

Dr. K. Nooka Ratnam
Head, Dept. of Geology

Faculty Members:

Dr. K. S. Peter
Dr. K. Sudha Rani
Dr. G. Appa Rao
Miss. Teja
Mr. Y. Suresh

Students Members:

Mr. B. D. N. Kishore
Mrs. N. Sunanda
Mr. B. Lovaraju
Miss. K. Sneha Satyapal

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The seminar aims to provide a platform for exchange of knowledge about the advances and challenges in various fields of geosciences among participants and to exchange recent research findings and innovative ideas for sustainable management of environment and georesources. The objectives of the seminar are

- To discuss the recent improvements in the existing geo-science technologies.
- To identify and recommend advanced technologies those have a potential for sustainable management of environment and georesources.

Themes of the seminar

- Geochemistry and oil exploration.
- Geological, Geochemical and Geophysical Techniques for Mineral Exploration (petroleum, coal, U, Au, PGE, REE, Li, Hf etc..).
- Safe, secure and sustainable environment - role of geosciences.
- Analytical techniques in Geochemistry, Environment and Exploration (ICP-MS, ICP-AES, MP-AES, AAS, XRF, INAA, GC-MS, etc..).
- Geosciences for natural resource exploration, exploitation and sustainable development.
- Natural resources and environmental pollution monitoring and management.
- Global warming, climatic change and sustainable development.
- Environmental Pollution: Water, Soil and Air.
- Waste Management.

Registration fee

UG/PG students:	Rs. 500/-
Research Fellows:	Rs. 750/-
University & College Teachers:	Rs.1000/-
Others:	Rs.1500/-

Important dates

Deadline for abstract submission:	15.08.2019
Acceptance of abstract:	15.09.2019
Deadline for submission of full paper:	01.11.2019

Limited accommodation can be arranged on request and payment.

Selected papers presented in the seminar may be published in the journal of applied geochemistry after completion of the review process.

More information about the pre-seminar workshops can be found in the Brochure that will be released soon.

ABOUT THE SOCIETY

The Indian Society of Applied Geochemists (ISAG) was established in 1993 (Regd. No. 3614) at Hyderabad. Hyderabad is considered the capital city of Earth Sciences, being the home to several geoscientific institutions and organizations and is a hub for geological activity. ISAG aims at promoting the cause of advanced research in all branches of geochemistry for the benefit of the society. The ISAG periodically organises National and International seminars, symposia and workshops on recent advancements. The Journal of Applied Geochemistry (JAG) is a flagship quarterly publication of the ISAG, which is well known for its regularity and quality scientific content.
